- Electric use consists of connections for a coffee pot, fan, heater, lights, etc.
- Please inform volunteers of electric use.

State of Ohio Vendor License

State law requires vendors to have a valid vendor's license to be legal to conduct business. The state also requires you to register the vendor number with the Flea Market manager. Information is available on the web site: <http://www.state.oh.use/tax>.

Food, Food and more Food!

Breakfast is served on Saturday and Sunday in the "Youth Center" on the fairgrounds by the Jr. Fair Foundation.

Hours of serving are 7:00 am to 10:00am Vendors and public are welcome.

The building is air conditioned/heated and very comfortable with a nice dining area available.

Carry outs are also available for your convenience.

The menu consists of a choice such as: 2 eggs sunny side/over easy/hard/scrambled with toast (white/wheat) and jelly, 1 egg in sandwich with choice of bread (sausage/bacon/cheese is optional); sausage gravy on biscuit; omelets, coffee, tea, juice and milk.

Thank you for supporting the efforts of our staff and 4-H volunteers.

Food Concessions

There are many food concessionaires on the fairgrounds serving a wide variety of food and drink. Please consider patronizing our food vendors while you are at the Flea Market.

(All food vendors are contracted)
